

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives feel it is altogether fitting and proper to pause from time to time to recognize individuals and organizations that have contributed to the welfare of this great state and its citizens; and

Whereas, Clay Henry has been distinguished as an intern for the Honorable John Quinn, Missouri State Representative; and

Whereas, Clay Henry joined the staff of Representative John Quinn during the Ninety-fourth General Assembly, First Regular Session, as a part of the Missouri State Intern Program at the State Capitol in Jefferson City, a program designed to involve college students in the legislative process through active participation; and

Whereas, Clay Henry has experienced the opportunity to observe first-hand the inner workings of state government and has gained valuable insight into the process by which laws are made; and

Whereas, Clay Henry has successfully demonstrated abilities in the performance of such duties as conducting research, serving as legislative aide and session attendant, helping with constituent services, and assuming various other responsibilities to make the office of Representative John Quinn run smoothly; and

Whereas, Clay Henry, a resident of Jefferson City and a graduate of Jefferson City High School, is a junior at Lincoln University majoring in history with a minor in political science, and in his spare time he enjoys playing the guitar and participating in sports; and

Whereas, Clay Henry has earned recognition as a valuable asset to Representative John Quinn and the entire Missouri Legislature through the application of the knowledge and skills acquired prior this experience and has attained a variety of new skills which will be of tremendous value in wherever life's path may lead:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, proudly join the Honorable John Quinn in commending Clay Henry for the many important contributions to our State Legislature during the session, and further extend our very best wishes for continued success in all future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Clay Henry, as a measure of our gratitude.
